

8th international conference on ENT surgery.

Oliver Evans*

Editorial Office, Journal of Advanced Surgical Research, London, United Kingdom

Accepted May 12, 2021

About Conference

The main motive of the 8th international conference on ENT surgery is to serve international platform for exchanging ideas, establish networks and increase awareness against recent otolaryngology research programs around the globe.

The core objective of conference is to provide clear vision about present ENT surgery techniques, research under process and new visions through means of presentations, exhibitions, workshops, interactions, and building networks to encourage development in otolaryngology field.

ENT surgery 2021 serves international platform mainly anticipating presence of enthusiastic surgical professionals completely determined towards their work. All experts of field, organization and institutions head, industries, surgeons, physicians, doctors, young researchers, and business professionals are invited to share knowledge and outstanding experience, challenges and new visions through means of keynote presentations, oral talks, poster presentation, exhibition, and video presentations.

ENT surgery 2021 provides platform to noble researchers to present their tremendous contribution in field and learners to gain knowledge about recent happenings and share new visions for developing advanced next generation technologies to resolve issued related to otolaryngology surgery to strengthen the community.

The organizing committee invites all experts and trainees to present and discuss latest updates. The main agenda is to address complications and encourage advancements to overcome complications related to field by means of presentations and discussions.

The conference organizing committee feels an immense pleasure to honour presence of ENT expert Physicians, Doctors, Surgeons, Researchers, Business Professional, Delegates, Young Researchers, Organization and Institutional Heads, And Students as target audience.

*Correspondence to:

Oliver Evans
Editorial Office
Journal of Advanced Surgical Research
London
United Kingdom
E-mail: medsurgery@escientificjournals.com