Followed by the Successful Completion of the Nursing Care Conference, the 28th edition on May 23-24, 2019 which took place in Fleming's Conference Hotel Wien in Vienna, Austria, We are hosting its next edition "29th International Conference on Nursing Care" in Paris, France on February 21-22, 2020.

Nursing Care 2020 will organize its conference which is a two-day event during which researchers present their work to each other and stay connected to others in their field learning about several new things. This is where the researchers typically present their work via poster or oral presentation and at the end of the day there will be an additional recognition to them as we are going to present the best awards for different modes of participation based on their presentations

These awards are given each year for the Nursing professionals for their participation in the conference every year. These awards are given to those who attend; based on (1) observations that will be made by the chair of the committee, (2) The duration and the length of the presentation given by the particular speaker/student/Young Research Forum, and (3) the quality of the Questionnaire round. We Have introduced the Best Organizing Committee Member Award, Best Keynote Speaker Award, Best Speaker Award, Best Young Research Forum Award, Best Poster Presentation Award

Best Organizing Committee Member Award
