Presentation Awards are presented to recognize individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the field and to encourage active involvement for the betterment of the field as a whole.

The award should motivate individuals to strive to realize their fullest potential which could in turn be beneficial to the field as whole. Epic works are not only a testament to the individual's efforts, but they also have the potential to change the whole world as they can lead to formulation of better policies and or a new mindset.

The marks given by the evaluation committee and the Conference Chair will be used to determine the recipients of these awards, and works with the highest marks shall be recommended for the following awards.

Awards

Best Key Note Speaker award:

Bacteriology 2020 Best Key Note Speaker Award depends on the Speaker's ability to attract the audience, the time the Speaker needs to leave an impactful message, and the time available based on your event's logistics. In general, anything less than 20 minutes is not optimal. This award will be given for the most outstanding presentation in the entire conference. It takes into consideration factors such as the whether the presentation is impactful, and whether the speaker is inspiring and authoritative.

Best Organising Committee Member:

The Bacteriology 2020 Best Organizing Committee Member Award will be presented to ensure that all decisions are taken in the organization's best interests and that their role is effectively carried out. Individual members should display selflessness, dignity, objectivity, responsibility, openness, fairness, and leadership.

Best Speaker:

Bacteriology 2020 Best Speaker Award goes to the speaker contributing to the event by expressing an insight, endorsing, or providing entertainment (or all three)! The key to being the best speaker is delivering a message that resonates with the audience and with which it is easy to work.

Best Masters/Ph.D/PosdDoc Thesis work presentation:

Bacteriology 2020 Best Masters / Ph. D./PosdDoc Work presentation will be offered in a couple of sentences for the idea articulation centers of your thoughts. It should show the subject of your paper and also comment on your condition in connection with the topic. The declaration of your proposal will tell your peruser what the paper is about and also help direct your composition and keep your argument focused.

Best Poster Award:

The best poster award for poster summarization of information or research will be presented in a concise and attractive manner to help publicize it and generate discussion. Awardees are selected on site (posters not attended at their scheduled time will not be considered) and award recipients will be announced during the conference. These awards include a certificate of recognition accredited by the International Organizing Committee. Each best poster winner will get a 70% abatement on the manuscript publication in the relevant journal of Allied Academies. The conference organizing committee has appointed a committee headed by a chairman to evaluate poster sessions and identify the best poster presentation. The Conference Chair and the evaluation committee decides which poster presentation will receive the Best Poster Presentation Award, based on the evaluation of the committee members.
