

Chip Intervention Case Presentation

Khaled N.Leone

The National heart institute, Egypt

Abstract

This is a LMCA case that gave ACS, in a 68 years of age honorable man, with just a background marked by HYPERTENSION and DYSLIPIDEMIA. He has ordinary kidney capacities, euglycemic, and reasonably high Troponin I. ECG and ECHO INCLUDED, Rt transradial vascular access, 7F sheath, distal LMCA Medina 1.1.1, completely impeded LAD proximal, fills from retrograde insurances CTO.L Cx, and OMI long 80% sore, MID RCA 80% injury, all out revascularization, 5 stents, and after one year positive ETT, inferolateral conceded for CA ADHOC PCI. Infero-horizontal ischemic changes, so a subsequent angiogram was done that showed a reformist proximal sore, one more stent and he is totally fine.

Biography :

Consultant Interventional Cardiologist-Director of the Fellowship of the Egyptian Board of Cardiology, NHI:

- Perform Invasive Cardio-vascular Interventions, especially, PCI in the form of balloon Angioplasty and stenting of Coronary arteries, Coronary angiographies, Carotid Artery angiographies, permanent pacemakers, etc.
- Supervise young physician's research work, assistant Head of Cardiology Department and CCU at the Italian Hospital.
- Manage 30 to 40 outpatients daily compiling both Internal medicine & cardiac conditions.
- Professional Summary: Possesses 30 years' professional experience as a cardiologist, in several highly reputed and established medical centers.
- 1989 – Present: National Heart Institute, Italian Hospital, Umberto-I, CMC Cathlab, Andalusia and Farid Habib Hospitals, Private Clinics: Heliopolis/NCC, another Center equipped with all the non-invasive Cardiology tools.
- Conscientious, experienced, and patient focused providing quality patient care in a meticulous, effective, and personable manner. Diagnosis/treatment of cardiac and peripheral vascular diseases.
- Believes in seeing each patient as an individual through excellent management skills, good communication, and behavior.

2nd International Conference on Cardiology and Cardiology research
Webinar | August 26-27, 2021

Citation: Khaled Leone, Chip Intervention and Case Prevention, Cardiology Meet 2021, 2nd International Conference on Cardiology and Cardiology research, Webinar, Aug 26-27, 2021.