

Editorial note - Archives of General Internal Medicine

Jake Snyder

University of Arizona, Arizona.

I am pleased to introduce Archives of General Internal Medicine, a rapid peer reviewed Journal which have a key concern over the medical and clinical practices by exploring the best research and by exhibiting this information both directly, as medical findings, and in practice-oriented formats of direct application in day-to-day situations. I am pleased to announce that all issues of volume 3 were published online within the time during the year of 2019.

Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning. Archives of General Internal Medicine (ISSN: 2591-7951) was founded in 2017 and is growing continuously.

Archives of General Internal Medicine Journal emphasizes to publish reviews in basic, fundamental, critical and state of the art review articles in the field of immunology, endocrinology, gastroenterology, nephrology, pulmonology, cardiology, anesthesiology, gynecology, neurology, psychiatry and radiology. The journal's author base is composed of eminent academicians, scientists and medical professional from diverse geographical regions of the world.

All published articles of this journal are included in the indexing and abstracting coverage of Index Copernicus, Google Scholar, China National Knowledge Infrastructure (CNKI), Directory of Research Journal Indexing (DRJI), WorldCat, Publons, Secret Search Engine Labs.

Thank you, too, to the editorial board members who have supported the journal since its inception and who continue to promote its growth. And to the reviewers, we appreciate the time you dedicate to ensuring papers meet our standards for scientific quality and integrity.

The Readership Metrics (By Google Analytics) of Archives of General Internal Medicine Journal can be accessed at Google Analytics Metrics for the Archives of General Internal Medicine.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Editor-in-Chief: Samuel N. Forjuoh, Editors: Huailei Jiang (USA), Yoshiaki Kikuchi (Japan), Peng Luo (China), Henry Zelada (USA), Jinqi Ren (USA), Domenico M. Romeo (Italy) and other editors also during the final editing of articles published and the support. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of AGIM, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of AGIM and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 4 of AGIM in scheduled time.

Thank you!

With kind regards,
Ayan Michael,
Associate Managing Editor,
Archives of General Internal Medicine