

Editorial Note on Journal of Cell Biology and Metabolism

I am pleased to mention that during the year 2018, all issues of volume 1 were published online well within the time and the print issues were also brought out and dispatched within 30 days of publishing the issue online.

The Journal of Cell Biology and Metabolism is an emerging journal that has published its first volume consisting of 2 issues on various research areas related to cell biology and metabolism and its related fields. Apart from the regular issues JCBM has also published 2 special issues consisting of total 11 articles

During the calendar year 2018, Journal of Cell Biology and Metabolism received a total of 12 papers, out of which 4 articles (33%) were rejected in the preliminary screening due to plagiarism or being out of the format and peer review process. During 2018 around 8 articles were subjected for publication after they are accepted in the peer review process. In the 2 issues of Volume 1 published during the year 2018, a total of 8 articles were published (at an average of 3 articles per issue) of which, articles were published from authors all around the world. A total of 20 research scientists from all over the world reviewed the 8 articles published in volume 1. Average publication lag time of an article was further reduced to 2-3 weeks.

During the calendar year 2018, a total of 24 Editors, 20 Reviewers joined the board of JCBM and contributed their invaluable services towards contribution as well as publication of articles.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge the contribution of Li-Pin Kao during the final editing of articles published and the support rendered by the editorial assistant, Oliver Alison in bringing out issues of JCBM in time. I would also like to express my gratitude to all the authors, reviewers, the publisher, the advisory and the editorial board of JCBM, the office bearers for their support in bringing out yet another volume of JCBM and look forward to their unrelenting support to bring out the Volume 2 of JCBM in scheduled time.
