

Editorial note on Journal of Archives of General Internal Medicine

Marcos palone

Faculty of Medicine of Ribeirao Preto, University of Sao Paulo, Ribeirao Preto, SP, Brazil.

Dear Readers,

With a great pleasure, I would like to express my happiness on the eve of entering into the 4th year of this Scientific Publishing Field. Initially we started this Archives of General Internal Medicine with the aim to disseminate advanced knowledge all over the globe. Thankfully, with the constant support of Eminent Editor-in-Chief's and Editorial Board Members, Potential Reviewers and Active Authors we are able to run this journal so successfully till now and we hope it continues in near future also. Archives of General Internal Medicine provides the publication of articles. In the year of 2019, we have published a very good number of articles, which were recent discoveries.

Archives of General Internal Medicine, is a peer reviewed scholarly journal that aims for wide dispersal of research advancements regarding the science and practice of internal medicine. The journal aims at the furtherance of biomedical research through the rapid publication of high-quality original research articles, systematic reviews, meta-analyses and technology reports, perspectives on current developments in the field of diagnosis and treatment of diseases prevalent in adults. The journal also publishes manuscripts on research developments pertaining to the pathophysiology of infectious diseases as well as the treatment and management of diseases and physiological conditions such as allergy, asthma and obesity.

In the past years, apart from releasing regular issues at present, our main focus is to make scientific papers more accessible for aspiring researchers. With the support of Editor-in-Chief's, Editorial board members, Executive editors and Guest Editors, we are planning to come up with interesting special issue topics to encourage the authors. Archives of General Internal Medicine comes under the top ten journals in this open access field. In 2020, we have already released one issue and now we are in the process of releasing another issue

Finally, Journal of Archives of General Internal Medicine sincerely appreciates each and every member for their valuable service in this Publication Process. We always look forward to work with many young scientists across the globe.

Upcoming Strategies to improve Journal

- We strive to improve readers for the published respective article in various social media platforms like Twitter, Linked in, etc.
- We are approaching core Laboratories, research institutes, investigation labs and departmental Universities for call for papers as well as related journals.
- We are sending timely Call for papers for the respective countries according to their time line.
- We are using Search Engine Optimization (SEO), by adding major keywords in the article, it would be easier for the Google Keyword Planner to show our article in higher pages while the readers search.
- We are also available to the authors through live chat and Whatsapp to respond fast.

Ayan Michael,
Associate Managing Editor,
Archives of General Internal Medicine