
World Congress on Palliative Care

Sergey Suchkov
Russian Academy of Sciences, Russia

Abstract

We all know that healthcare today is faced with ever greater challenges, while advances in research and innovations may open new possibilities for better health and improved care for patients. World Congress on Palliative Care happened during August 11, 2020 is an international Webinar for frank and challenging dialogue, exploring possibilities and dilemmas associated with advancement in patient care.

The webinar brought together health professionals, thought leaders, doctors, researchers, entrepreneurs, nurses, professors, directors, oncologists at Edinburgh. Over two days, participants were encouraged to share experience, insights and strategies for moving the delivery of exceptional cancer care and permitting the professional well-being of the entire care team. The format of the meeting involved a mixture of exhibitions, keynote talks, presentations on topical issues, and extensive panel discussions, as well as the introduction of interactive working groups, and plenty of scheduled time for official and informal networking.

The event was embarked with an opening ceremony followed by a series of dynamic lectures delivered by both the members of the Keynote forum and speakers.

Conference committee would like to present heartiest acknowledgement to all the speakers and delegates whose support and active participation helped us in making the scientific conference successful with their insightful presentation, talks and interesting discussions.

We would like to praise all the award winners for their meritorious performance and sincerely wishes them success in future endeavors!

World Congress on Palliative Care
Webinar | August 11, 2020