From the organization of Allied Academies, we Infectious Disease Congress feels very honoured and privileged to recognize the accomplishments of our brilliant researchers who have made their research work more interesting and helpful for future developments. This Award ceremony program is held to identify the Senior researchers, professionals and young talents who have made an immense contribution to the Scientific community. Now, we have gathered here to appreciate all the research works done by our fellow researchers and to value their hard work and morals which these awardees exemplify, like compassion and zeal for learning the new advancement in the medical community.

Allied Academies recognize the commitment and astonishing works in all academic and research fields. By recognizing their contribution; AAC inspires and motivates scholars, researcher and academicians by giving AAC International Best Researcher Awards along with other specific awards in all academic disciplines and categories. These Awards include a prestigious Award Certificate, Memento along other gifts. These Awards are given in generally yearly once in the Infectious Disease program conducted in some city may internationally.

Our Infectious Disease Conference holds many sessions for the participants like, Keynote presentations, Plenary presentations, Poster presentations, Young Researcher presentations and also Video Presentations. And presentation awards are given to acknowledge the personalities who have made excellent contributions to the field and to support active engagement for the improvement of the field as a whole.

This award should inspire and motivate participants to attempt, to understand their fullest ability which could, in turn, be helpful to the field as a whole. Epic masterpieces are not only a witness to the individual's hard work, but they also have the capability to alter the whole world as they can take the lead to formulate better policies and or a new mindset.

The marks provided by the assessment committee and the Meeting Chair will be used to decide the receivers of these awards, and works with the high ranking marks shall be suggested for the following awards:
