We are pleased to announce that our previous conference concluded with great success titled “Nursing and Healthcare” held on March 27-28, 2019 in Amsterdam, Netherlands hosted by Allied Academies theme titled “Approaching Advancements in Health Care”.

The conference started with the eminent speaker who joined the Keynote Forum:

Title: The mechanoreceptor-filler hypothesis of my modulation

Steven Harris, Harris Clinic, United Kingdom

Title: Integrating TRIZ for service innovation and lean methodology to improve quality of healthcare services

Azza HM Hussein, Alexandria University, Egypt

After successful completion of our previous conference, the feedbacks from our speakers were heart-warming. So again, we are happy to organize “International Conference on Primary Healthcare and Pain Management” which is going to take place during March 26-27, 2020 at Paris, France having a very catching theme of “Enhancement in Primary Healthcare and its Future Prospects”.

Primary Healthcare 2020 providing an opportunity for speakers from all over the world to fulfil their network and understand new scientific research innovations in Primary Healthcare.
