The Best Keynote speaker Award: It has been introduced to distinguish the finest Keynote presenter at Anesthesia 2020. We welcome our Organizing committee members to take part in the event and establish their exquisite research ahead of our Anesthesia gathering. The Best Keynote presentation will be chosen by the Committee board and will be awarded during the ceremony of the Anesthesia event.

The Prime Organizing Committee member: The award will be venerated based on the involvement in the committee, his/her contribution to the proper organisation of the event. The Best committee member will be recognized and awarded.

The Best Thesis work presentation: It is an award introduced with the motive of encouraging Young researchers to present their Masters/Ph.D./Postdoc thesis work in the esteemed event. The presentation aids the young researchers to gain reinforcement from the experienced committee members and speakers. Also helps in disseminating the research work.

The Best Poster Award: It has been introduced to inspire the students and researchers to present their work in the field in a simpler form. This helps gain deliberation and recognizes the scientific merit exhibited in the poster presentation.

The above awards have been presented with the motive of encouraging collaboration extensively. The awards are evaluated based on the criteria of the provision of appropriate perspective for the subject, clear statement of objectives, appropriate data analysis, research objectives addressed, interpretation and clarity of presentation.

Take part in the Amsterdam Anesthesia Conference and win an award for your presentation!
